

Reclaim the Night 2024 Terms & Conditions

1. This event is open to everyone. Children must be supervised at all times by their accompanying adult.
2. You take part understanding that you should be of reasonable health and fitness to attend this event.
3. All participants are asked to register online through the Eventbrite link prior to the event. This is essential to being able to advise you of any changes to the event.
4. There is no fee to attend this event.
5. All registrations will be processed in the order we receive them.
6. Closing date for registrations will be Thursday 8 February 2024 or when all places have been filled, whichever is the earliest. Note that places are limited, so early registration is recommended to avoid disappointment.
7. We reserve the right to cancel the event due to severe weather, risk to life or any Covid-19 related restrictions or concerns.
8. If, for whatever reason, the event cannot take place, we will inform all registered attendees and offer an alternative date for the event to go ahead.
9. If you are unable to take part nearer the time, please contact Mel Sevieri, organiser of the event, via mel.sevieri@trevi.org.uk. Your place will then be put on a waiting list for other interested parties to take part.
10. All information regarding the event will be posted on our Facebook event page, alongside the information already provided on the Eventbrite registration page. An email will be sent to all registered participants the week of the event.
11. We encourage you to have fun on this event, while raising as much awareness as you can for the serious issues being discussed. We also ask you to behave in a respectable manner around members of the public we pass who are not involved in the event.

12. By taking part in our event, you implicitly authorise the future use of your image (photograph or video) for publicity purposes.
13. We reserve the right to change the event details and any aspect of event management organisation.
14. We encourage all participants to bring water for the march. Refreshments will be available to purchase at both start and end point venues.
15. The route has been chosen to ensure it is easily accessible for all participants.
16. All participants are expected to behave in line with our values: Aspiration, Tenacity, Integrity, Compassion, Courage and Collaboration.
